Iowa Department on Aging Announces Community Conversations to be Held Across Iowa

Aging Issues and Reorganization to be Discussed in Coralville & Toledo

(Des Moines, IA) – Today Iowa Department on Aging (IDA) Director Donna Harvey announced that community meetings titled ‘A Conversation on Aging Issues’ will be held in various parts of the state throughout the summer.

“The Iowa Department on Aging is holding community meetings this summer to give older Iowans and their families an opportunity to talk about aging issues most important to them and also discuss the legislative mandate to reduce the number of Area Agencies on Aging,” Director Harvey stated.

The following meetings, titled ‘A Conversation on Aging Issues’ will be held for the Coralville and Toledo areas:

- July 11 1:00PM - 3:00PM : - Coralville- Public Library at 1401 5th Street (park on lower level)
- July 11 5:00PM - 6:30PM:- Toledo - Community Bank Community Center
103 S. Broadway St.
